Comex Gold - Continuous Daily March 3

The second consecutive day above broken resistance near $1,130 confirms the breakout and puts gold on solid technical footing with the next goal for bulls being the region near and just above the $1,150 region. If they can push price through this level, they stand a good shot at reaching $1,200.

Support first lies near $1,130 with heavier support coming in near the $1,110 - $1,108 level.
