Comex Continuous Gold
 Daily Chart June 21

A downside reversal pattern appeared on the chart today with the market making a new all time highn and then closing below the previous session low.

Bulls will have to hold the market above the line marked light support down near $1,225 - $1,227 to avoid further long liquidation.

Resistance at Friday's high is now reinforced which marks it as the resistance level that will need to be taken out to recharge the uptrend.
